SEATED TAI CHI EXERCISES

Gentle movements you can do from a chair

1 SEATED BREATHING

Focus on slow, deep breathing to calm the mind and relax the body.

2 LIFT THE SKY

Raise your arms with palms up to stretch the body and open your chest.

3 WARD OFF

Extend one hand forward with palm out to build focus and upper body strength.

4 SEATED TWIST

Gently twist side to side to improve spinal mobility and digestion.

5 PUSH DOWN

Press your hands down slowly to release tension and improve circulation.

STANDING TAI CHI EXERCISES

Build balance, strength, and flexibility

1 COMMENCING FORM

Begin with focus and intention. Center your body and mind.

2 PART THE WILD HORSE'S MANE

Open the chest and shoulders. Improves posture and balance.

3 WHITE CRANE SPREADS WINGS

Enhances flexibility and promotes smooth, flowing movement.

4 BRUSH KNEE AND PUSH

Improves coordination and strengthens legs and core.

5 SINGLE WHIP

Builds full-body strength and improves balance and coordination.

6 GRASP THE SPARROW'S TAIL

Improves flexibility, posture, and hip mobility.

7 CLOUD HANDS

Promotes relaxation and enhances mind-body connection.

8 TURNING AND STEPPING

Improves agility, coordination, and spatial awareness.

9 FAIR LADY WORKS SHUTTLE

Enhances balance and refines graceful movement.

10 CLOSING FORM

Gently close your practice with gratitude and calm.

MOVE MINDFULLY. BREATHE DEEPLY. LIVE WELL.

Practice Tai Chi regularly to enjoy a healthier body, a calmer mind, and a better quality of life.
